

Being a believer and follower of God requires patience, kindness, and faith, among other things. However, Paul reminds us that the greatest is love (1 Corinthians 13:13).

YOU WILL NEED:

- Plain 16" x 24" Doormat
- Colored Fabric Markers
- Sheets of Paper
- Manicure Scissors
- Pencil
- Scissors
- Ruler

DIRECTIONS:

1. Print out the attached sheets.

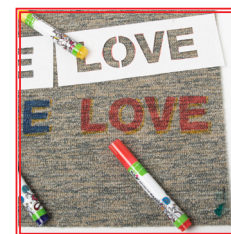

2. Cut out the rectangles containing the words "FAITH", "HOPE", and "LOVE". Using manicure scissors, carefully cut out the letters to make a stencil. Line up the three stencils 9-10" below the top edge of the mat.

3. While holding the stencil in place, color in the word "FAITH" with green fabric marker.

4. Continuing to hold the stencil, color in the word "HOPE" with blue fabric marker.

5. Hold the stencil for the word "LOVE" and color the letters red.

6. Cut three 7" x 8" rectangles from paper.

7. Fold these rectangles in half. Draw half of a cross on one, half an anchor on another, and half a heart on the third one. Cut them out.

8. Open out the papers and lay them on the mat.

9. While holding the paper in place, draw around the cross, anchor and heart with fabric marker. Fill in the shapes with color and outline around everything if you like.

10. Along the bottom of the mat write: "But the greatest of these is love."
