

Although wolves are very trustworthy and loyal to their packs, they are deceitful and harmful to their prey. Proverbs 12:22 reminds us to be trustworthy.

YOU WILL NEED:

- Gray Yarn
- White Yarn
- Black Yarn
- Gray Felt
- 2 Googly Eyes
- Poster Board
- Key Ring
- Ruler
- Scissors
- Hot Glue Gun

DIRECTIONS:

1. Cut out two 3" circles from poster board, and two 1½" circles. Make cuts in the circle as shown. Place the matching circles on top of each other.

2. Wrap the gray yarn evenly around the large circles. Wrap 3-5 times around the smaller circles with black, then continue with gray for two layers.

3. Wrap a layer of white yarn around each circle.

4. Carefully cut the yarn around the middle where the two pieces of poster board meet.

5. Work a strand of gray yarn between the two circles and knot tightly around the middle where the two pieces of poster board meet. Bring the ends of the yarn up through the gray part of the pom-pom.

6. Remove the poster board circles. Trim any long strands, but leave the ends of the yarn you tied it with.

7. Cut two ears from the gray felt.

8. Glue the small pom-pom to the large pom-pom for the muzzle. Glue on the eyes and ears.

9. Glue a strand of black yarn to the muzzle to make a mouth.

10. Tie a keyring to the strands of gray yarn. Hope your wolf isn't deceitful!
