

We have nothing to fear, because God fights for us so we can be of service to Him (Nehemiah 4:14-15). Find courage to overcome fear as you memorize a verse each day.

YOU WILL NEED:

- Round Container 4" or more Diameter
- Colored Cardstock
- Hole Punch
- Colored Pens
- Pencil
- Glue Stick
- Scissors
- White Paper
- Ribbon
- Ruler

DIRECTIONS:

1. Trace around the container onto white paper.

5. Trace around the container on colored cardstock. Cut out 20 different colored circles.

9. Glue 5 folded circles together with the tip of the triangles pointing up. It will look like a little hat. Repeat to make 2 hats.

2. Cut out the circle.

6. Put the white triangle on top of the circle. Place a ruler along the edge of the triangle. Fold the edge of the circle over the ruler.

10. Lay out 10 folded circles in the following order: the base of the triangle down, the base of the triangle up, and so on.

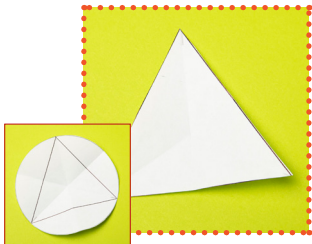

3. Fold the circle in half. Now fold it into thirds of equal size.

7. Repeat this step for the other two sides of the triangle.

11. Glue the circles into a ring following this order. Glue one hat to the top and the other hat to the bottom. You should have a ball shape.

4. Open out the circle. Draw a triangle with three equal sides. Cut out the triangle.

8. Repeat steps #6-7 for all 20 cardstock circles. Write God's promises (See the suggestions in the attachment) on all 20 triangles.

12. Poke a hole in the edge of one of the circles. Run a ribbon through and tie a knot. Hang the ball on the doorknob. Before you go outside, pray and read God's promise. Be blessed!
