

PEACEFUL UNDER PRESSURE

While Jesus was on the cross, the earth quaked and many began to believe that He was the Son of God (Matthew 27:54). If we accept Jesus in our hearts, we can have peace in the midst of trouble and remain calm under pressure.

YOU WILL NEED:

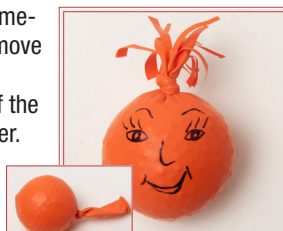

- Permanent Markers
- Multicolored Balloons
- Empty Plastic Bottle
- Tiny Styrofoam Balls
- Soft Artificial Snow
- Play Dough or Air Clay
- Cornstarch
- Scissors

DIRECTIONS:

1. To make a home-made funnel, remove the cap from the bottle and cut off the neck and shoulder. You can use this piece to fill the balloons.

5. Squeeze excess air from the balloon. Tie the balloon. Cut the part of the balloon above the knot into small strips. Using a marker, draw a face on the balloon.

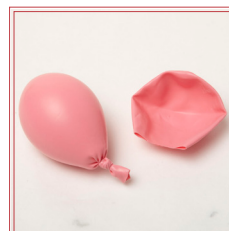

9. Pour some water into the ball. Squeeze out excess air and tie a knot.

2. Inflate a balloon with air, then release. This will expand the balloon a little. Place the balloon over the mouth of the funnel. Fill the balloon with playdough through the funnel hole.

6. Inflate and deflate another balloon. Place the balloon on the funnel. Fill the balloon with soft artificial snow. Squeeze excess air from the balloon and tie.

10. Cut the neck off another balloon. Place this over the first balloon, covering up the knot. Do the same thing again. This should prevent the balloon from breaking when squeezed.

3. Squeeze excess air out of the balloon. Tie the balloon. Using a marker, draw a happy face on the balloon.

7. Cut off extra from above the knot. Cut the top off another balloon of a different color. Cut several holes all over its surface. Slide it over the first ball, covering up the knot.

11. Cut the top off a balloon of a different color. Cut several holes all over the surface. Slide it onto the balloon.

4. Inflate another balloon. Release the air. Place the balloon on the funnel. Fill the balloon with tiny Styrofoam balls.

8. Inflate and release the air from another balloon. Place the balloon over the funnel. Fill the balloon with cornstarch through the funnel hole.

12. Make a lot of balls with different fillings, colors, and sizes. Draw happy, peaceful faces on the balls; and remember how much Jesus loves you and wants you to stay calm and trust Him.
