SCRIPTURE
Matthew 8:23-27

SUPPLIES:

- Canvas board of any size
- Acrylic paints: white, yellow, and 4 shades of blue
- Wide bristle paintbrush
- Small-tipped paintbrush
- Toothbrush
- Paper plate
- Paper towel
- Small amount of water to thin paint

DIRECTIONS:

1. Take your wide-tip paintbrush and paint a coat of light blue over the entire canvas.
2. Dip your wide-tip paintbrush in a darker blue and dot the top $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ of your canvas. Draw your brush across the blue dots to create the sky.
3. Take your white paint and make the shape of the inside of a wave.
4. Take a light shade of blue and make a line of paint on the outside of the wave shape.
5. Take a medium shade of blue and make another line of paint on the outside of the light blue line.
6. Take the yellow paint and make a line of paint on the outside of the medium blue.
7. Take the darkest shade of blue and make a dotted line on the outside of the medium blue line.
8. Take your toothbrush and follow the curve of the waves, slowly blending your wave lines, but leaving some contrast. You can make your wave as high as you want.
9. Dip your finger in the white paint and dab it on the top ridge of the wave to form the foam
10. Take your fine-tip paintbrush, and spatter some thinned-down white paint onto the waves to make flecks of foam on your wave.

This beautiful creation will remind you that nature obeys Jesus' command:
"Peace, be still!"
